Numb. LXX.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Friday, March 13. to Thurſday, March 19. 1729-30.

The following is a Copy of the MEMORIAL of the General Aſſembly in New-England, ſent Home by Jonathan Belcher, Eſq; againſt the Proceedings of the then Governor Burnet.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Repreſentatives of your Province of the Maſſachuſſetts-Bay in General Court aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and offer the Reaſons and Grounds of our Proceedings and Concluſions concerning a fixed Salary on the Governor of this Province, which is directed to by your Majeſty's Twenty-third Inſtruction to your preſent Governor.

Nothing leſs than the Proſperity and Welfare of this your moſt dutiful Province, could have prevailed with us to have done any Thing diſagreeable to your Majeſty's Inſtruction: This Province is under that natural Diſadvantage, by reaſon of its very diſtant Scituation, that it cannot be under your Majeſty's immediate Inſpection and Care, as Great Britain, our happy Mother is.

It is and has been very well known, in this as well as other Nations and Ages, that Governors at a great Diſtance from the Prince or Seat of Government, have great Opportunities and ſometimes too prevailing Inclinations to oppreſs the People; and it is almoſt impoſſible for the Prince, who is the moſt careful Father of his Subjects, to have ſuch Matters ſet in a true Light. We humbly crave Leave therefore to ſuggeſt, that it is very much for your Majeſty's Intereſt, and very neceſſary to the Tranquility and Flouriſhing of this your Province, that the Governor ſhould be induced by his own Intereſt, as well as Duty to your Majeſty, to conſult the Intereſt and Welfare of the People; but ſhould we fix a Salary, the Governor's particular Intereſt would be very little affected, (while thus ſettled) by ſerving or diſſerving the People's Intereſt, and we ſhould do more than has been ever done by the Wiſdom of Great Britain. Notwithſtanding the Nation and your Subjects in the moſt diſtant Parts of your Dominions, have ſo intire a Confidence in your Majeſty, and your Intereſt and Glory and that of your Royal Poſterity are inſeparable from the Proſperity and Welfare of your People, for we are all your Inheritance, yet the Civil Liſt is ſettled for your Majeſty's Life only; whereas neither the Happineſs nor Adverſity of this Province affect a Governor's Intereſt, when he has once left us; and the raiſing and diſpoſing of Money from Time to Time of our free Will and Aſſent, for the Defence and Support of the Government, and Protection and Preſervation of the Inhabitants, is the great Privilege which as Engliſhmen by Magna Charta, and by the Charter granted by King William and Queen Mary of glorious Memory, the General Aſſembly (as we humbly conceive) have a Right unto.

For theſe Reaſons, the Houſe of Repreſentatives were perſuaded they could not in Duty to your Majeſty, and Faithfulneſs to the People of this Province, ſettle or fix a Salary, when your Majeſty's Inſtruction for that End was firſt laid before them: And in this Concluſion the Houſe had the Concurrence of your Majeſty's Council here; and ſince that in the Courſe of the Governor's Adminiſtration, we have had no Encouragement to do it from any Grounds or Reaſons for ſuch ſpecial Confidence in him, but the Treatment we have met with, in the Methods that have been uſed to bring us into a ſtated Salary, hath tended to confirm and abundantly ſtrengthen us in our firſt Determination: For inſtead of the Governor's laying our Concluſion on that Affair before your Majeſty, and waiting your Direction to him, and conſulting in the mean Time the Benefit and Welfare of the People, we are told by him, That we are met for that End, and ſo ſhould continue till we had finiſhed it: And when we were deſirous to riſe, that we might conſult our Conſtituents, it was denied us, and we have been compelled to ſit for ſome Months, when the Affairs of the Province have not required it, for no other End but to bring us into the Settlement of a Salary, which we have often declared we could not do: And when this Method did not prevail, we were removed from the Houſe and Records belonging to the General Aſſembly in Boſton, to Salem, a Town about twenty Miles from Boſton, upon a Pretence that the People in Boſton influenced the Repreſentatives againſt ſettling a Salary. And although ſince our being at Salem, we have aſſured him that we acted freely therein, and that the ſame Reaſons that prevailed with us at Boſton, would go with and influence us every where; yet we are ſtill kept ſitting there, to the great Diſſervice of your Majeſty's Intereſt, and grievous Hurt and Damage of the Province.

And all this has been (as we humbly conceive) without any Provocation from the Aſſembly or People here. Your Majeſty's Governor at his firſt Arrival, was received with the higheſt Reſpect and greateſt Expence by much that ever was on ſuch an Occaſion. The Aſſembly took Care for his Entertainment in a very honourable Manner, according to the Dignity of his Station, at a private Gentleman's Houſe, 'till the Province Houſe was prepared for him: And although the Province is under great Difficulties by being a Barrier to your Majeſty's other Plantations againſt the Indian Salvages, which in a War brings an exceſſive Charge, ſometimes of about 50,000 l. per Ann. and has left a Load of Debt on the Province of about 200,000 l. and how ſoon a War may break out again with them, we cannot tell; and now in Peace with them, the Province is at the annual Charge of many Thouſands of Pounds to preſerve it; yet ſoon after the Governor's Arrival, the Aſſembly granted 1700 l. to him, 1400 l. to enable him to manage the publick Affairs, and 300 l. to defray the Charges of tranſporting his Goods and Servants here, and informed him, that at the uſual Times, this and ſucceeding Aſſemblies would undoubtedly afford a Support ſuitable to the Dignity of his Perſon and Station: And ſince that, upon the firſt Opportunity, in the uſual Time of the Year for the ſecond Grant, as ſoon as the Fall of the Year was arrived, notwithſtanding they had been kept ſitting all the while, to the great Damage of the Province, they granted 1600 l. more; and ſince theſe Grants were paſſed, we have once and again earneſtly deſired him to take both one and the other. Theſe Sums are far beyond what has ever been granted to any Governor heretofore; and we doubt not but ſucceeding Aſſemblies, according to the Ability of the Province, will come into as ample and honourable Support from Time to Time; and ſhould they not, we acknowledge your Majeſty will have juſt Reaſon to ſhew your Diſpleaſure with them: But while we continue to grant a Support ſo Honourable, as (we humbly conceive) we have ſince the preſent Governor's Arrival, beyond other Plantations, conſidering the Charge we are otherwiſe expoſed to, and a Load of Debt lying upon us, we hope we ſhall always enjoy your Majeſty's Royal Grace and Favour, which this univerſally loyal People above all Things deſire.

That the Crown may long flouriſh on your Royal Head, and continue ſo in your moſt illuſtrious Family to the lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Your moſt Loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants,

In the Houſe of Repreſentatives, Nov. 22, 1728.

In the Name and by Order of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, } W. DUDLEY, Speaker.

N. B. The Council refuſing to join with the Aſſembly in voting 300 l. Sterling, to the Agents, in order to defray the Expence of proſecuting the above Memorial, it was raiſed by Subſcription among ſome private Gentlemen; for which they had the Thanks of the Houſe, with an Aſſurance, that the Houſe would uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to have the ſaid Sum repaid in all convenient Time.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Hamburgh, Decemb. 6.

ACcording to Letters from Copenhagen, of the 3d Inſtant the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Prince Royal, which was the Wedneſday before the Date, when he entred in the 31ſt Year of his Age, was celebrated moſt magnificently. We have very melancholy Accounts from Yſland, that in the North Part in the Diſtrict of Hunſwigvan Zwavelberg, and in the Village of Mytafu, ſituate on a Mountain, there was ſuch a ſubterraneous Fire, that Houſes, Churches, Sheep and horned Cattle were deſtroyed thereby, and with ſuch ſudden Violence, that even the Inhabitants were in great Danger of their Lives, and according to our laſt Advices the Fire not only continued burning, but ſix whole Pariſhes ſeemed to be likewiſe threatned with Deſtruction; and becauſe the Earth thereabouts is compounded of Brimſtone and Salt-petre, they were under great Apprehenſions of the Fire ſpreading under Ground more and more.

London, Nov. 28. On Tueſday Night laſt a Sharper went to Mr. Moran a Peruke-maker by St. James's Square, telling him a Gentleman juſt come out of the Country wanted to ſpeak with him immediately at a Tavern in Chancery Lane, and that he believed it was to beſpeak two or three Wigs; upon which Mr. Moran took a Hackney Coach, in order to wait upon the Gentleman, and deſired the pretended Meſſenger (who was to conduct him to the Gentleman) to ride in the Coach with him, who replied, That he was but a Porter, and therefore choſe to get up behind. The Coachman, according to his Orders, drove to Lincoln's-Inn, where Mr. Moran got out of the Coach in order to go to Chancery-lane, when the Villain preſented a Piſtol to his Breaſt, and demanded his Watch and Money; but Mr. Moran making ſome Reſiſtance, two more of the Gang ſtept up to him with Piſtols, and robb'd him of his Gold Watch and Chain valued at 35 l. one Guinea, ſome Silver and his Pocket-Book, and made off.

We hear that the Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty will Order an Experiment to be made (in a long Voyage) of a new Invention, called the Marine Surveyor, which is projected for the Menſuration of the Way of a Ship at Sea, more exact than the Log, or any other Method hitherto invented for that Uſe: The Author thereof is Mr. Henry de Saumarez of the Iſland of Guernſey.

Nov. 29. Yeſterday being the laſt Day of the Term, Mr. Woolſton received Judgment at the Court of King's-Bench, upon 4 Informations for publiſhing his 4 Diſcourſes upon the Miracles of our Saviour, viz. for the 3 firſt he was fined 25 l. each, and to be impriſoned till the Fines were paid: For the 4th he was fined 25 l. with Impriſonment till paid; and was alſo ſentenced a Year's Impriſonment, and to give 4000 l. Security for his Good Behaviour during Life; that is, to be bound himſelf in a Recognizance of 2000; and and 2 Securities in 1000 l. each, or 4 in 500 l. each.

We hear from Wakefield, by the late great Rains the Floods there are like a Deluge, and have done great Damage: The Waters were ſo rapid as to carry away a Quantity of Coals to the Value of 2000 l. and upwards, and drowned 200 Fat Sheep; a Mill-ſtone which lay at the Mill Door, was carried under the Arch of the Bridge, and a Hay-ſtack belonging to Mr. Scot, containing 30 Loads, was by the Flood and Winds carried over the River above 100 Yards broad, and left on the Ground of Mr. Smith of Newlands, in one intire Stack, as it ſtood before, but the greateſt Part of it is ſpoiled.

Dec. 6. They write from Warwick, that in Sept. laſt the Tomb of the famous Champion, bold Beauchamp, who had been buried in St. Mary's Church there 293 Years, falling in, his Corpſe was diſcovered entire; and what is more remarkable, his Hair was very freſh and ſtrong.

Great Numbers of Coaches, Carriages, Horſes, and Foot Paſſengers, have continued to paſs and repaſs over the Bridge between Fulham and Putney ſince Saturday laſt, that being the firſt Day of permitting all ſuch Coaches and Carriages to paſs and repaſs over the ſame for a Fortnight.

On Monday Evening between 8 and 9, Dr. Mead, the Phyſician, was attacked in Holborn near Bernard's Inn, by one Foot-pad, who commanded the Coachman to ſtop, and told the Footman behind, if he offered to ſtir, he would ſhoot him, and demanded of the Doctor his Money, Watch and Rings; but the Footman crying out Thieves, the Villain fired a Piſtol at him and run off; but being purſued, he was ſeized, and being immediately carried before Sir William Billers, proved to be the notorious Street Robber James Dalton, who about 12 Months ago was admitted an Evidence with Thomas Neeves, (ſince executed at Tyburn for Shoplifting) againſt 12 Street Robbers; whereupon he was committed to the Compter, and being next Day further examined before Sir VVilliam Billers, he was committed to Newgate. The ſaid Dalton having ſpent all the Money he had received as his Share of the Reward, on Conviction of the ſaid Robbers, and run conſiderably in Debt, he went beyond Sea, and was diſcharged by the late Fugitive Act.

The new Half-pence are now delivering out at the Tower, and are a beautiful Coin.

An Expreſs is come from Leiceſter with an Account, that when they were going to reduce the Dragoons quartered there, the Men mutiny'd becauſe their Horſes were to be taken away, and therefore they refuſed to comply with the Order from above, and kept to their Arms; whereupon General VVade ſet out for Leiceſter at Five o' Clock on Monday Morning to appeaſe this Diſorder.

Boſton, March 2. By a Letter from S. Carolina, dated Feb. 3. we are informed, that upon the Deſertion of ſome Negroes from thence to St. Domingo, the Governor of Carolina ſent a Sloop to demand them; but the Spaniards agreed to pay 200 Pieces of Eight for each of them, and had paid down two Thirds of the Money.

New-York, March 16. On the 17th of February, Capt. Thomas Hill, Maſter of the Sloop Ann, met with a Pink belonging to Boſton, in Lat. 20, 31. N. ſhe came from the Bay of Honduras bound for Boſton, but was blown off the Coaſt in January and forced for the Iſland of Jamaica. The Captain's Name is John Kint.

Philadelphia, March 19.

Sometime laſt Week Mr. Aldſworth, (mentioned in our Gazette, No. XLIX.) was found dead on the Jerſey Shore, where he had probably been thrown up by the Tide. His Privities were eaten off, and Part of his under Jaw.

Laſt Week a Thief got into a Houſe in Walnut Street in the Day Time, while the Woman of the Houſe was from Home, and robbed her of near 100 l. in Paper Money, Pieces of Gold, Rings, &c. Soon after the Fact, a Fellow was apprehended upon Suſpicion, and examined; but no Part of what was ſtolen being found upon him, he denied it ſtiffly, and was committed to Priſon. No News was heard of the Money till Saturday laſt, when an honeſt Countryman walking out behind the Town with a Deſign to eaſe himſelf, luckily happen'd to ſet down in that Place where Hair is dried for the Sadlers, and pulling ſome out of the Heap to make uſe of, he ſpied a Bundle of Paper, which prov'd to be Caſh. He carried it to his Friend Mr. Tho. Leech for Advice, who went with him to the Magiſtrates, and upon Examination it appeared to belong to the VVoman above mentioned. A further Search being made among the Hair, the Purſe was found containing the Gold, &c. and the whole reſtored entire to the Owner. 'Tis thought the Thief conceal'd it there immediately after he had ſtolen it, being apprehenſive he ſhould be ſuſpected. The Countryman received a handſome Reward.
